CHORUS

They're cow-bells, just cow-bells, when he says he loves but you That's
They're cow-bells, just cow-bells, when he says you made him fall That's cow-bells, just cow-bells, when he says he'll be true And cow-bells, just cow-bells, that is what he tells them all And when he sighs, "I love your eyes, you're such a sweet little thing"

when he says, "You're my first love, the others don't mean a thing"

You're the first girl that I've kissed; Oh listen, listen to the cow-bells ring, Those I'd lay down my life for you! Oh listen, listen to the cow-bells ring, Those

Tempo di Valse

If you're alone some, And you're just pin ing your Love comes stealing In to your heart like a

Heart away Over some sweet girl

Melody But in some one's arms

You can

Brain's find a whirl I've a plan, it's great

Their charms So it's while you dance

If it's not too late. Then I'll tell you what to do.

get a chance. So it's really up to you.

CHORUS

Steal a little kiss while dancing. Then you won't regret, you've a heart to let.
Every little kiss enchanting. Loves a little teasing, and a little squeezing.
While the music keeps you swayin',
That's the time to say,
dearie name the day,
While you're keep-in' time.

Keep her right in line
If you steal a kiss while dancing.

She'll be dancing home—sweet home with you.
A NATURAL HIT

"Who'll Take My Place"

(When I'm Gone)

Words By
RAYMOND KLAGES

Music By
BILLY FAZIOLI

CHORUS

Who'll take my place— in your heart— when I'm gone—

Who'll know the bliss — of your love — from then on—

Who's going, share— each hour — and care— What'll you do then—

There is n't a one who will love you like I do— Who'll take my place—
