Just Like A Rainbow

By MARY EARL and TED FIORITO

CHORUS

Just like a rainbow that's shining
After the clouds have rolled by
A little smile or two
Will cheer you when you're blue
And days are dreary
Life can be just what you make it Look for your blue bird on

Erin, You're Wearin' A Wonderful Smile

Lyric by BARTLEY COSTELLO

Music by JACK STANLEY

Moderato

If I'm dreamin', don't wake me, A-cush-la, For I Shure I hope I'm not dreamin', A-cush-la, And the see Erin wearin' a smile, And dried are the tears that were smile that I see will not die, Till skies over-head see the fall-in' for years, On her own darlin' Emerald Isle: Oh! then Sham-rock grow'd, And the lakes of Killarney run dry: Oh! then

REFRAIN (Valse moderato)

Erin, you're wear-in' a wonderful smile, And it's proud I am of you today, All the sorrows you've suffered were well worth the while, Just to know that they're fadin' away; Shure the Shannon is singin' an ould Irish song, And the Shamrock again is in style, May the Blessin' of God be yours always, ould sod, Erin, you're wearin' a wonderful smile. Oh! then smile.

Let your memory stray Back Ohio way

Drifting down a stream one June night

In a birch canoe 'Neath the Heavens blue

Where the willows greet the moonlight
