CHORUS

Sure there's plenty to live for, But oh what I'd give for, A sight of the old home once more,

Heaven they say, Is not far away,

It must be right next door,

There's an angel waiting, To welcome me home,

By the letters she writes I can see,

As I

Valse moderato

I'm sitting alone by the fireside
The days and the nights seem so lonely

Watching the shadows fall, I'm dreaming a Missing you all the while, I'd give all I gain of you dear, And the days beyond recall own if only, It would bring me back your smile

And life is so empty without you. No one can But all of our castles have vanished. They could not take your place. So I'm drifting back to dream-land, be it seems. But I'll build them all again, dear,
For a glimpse of your dear face.
In that mystic land of dreams.

CHORUS

I'm drifting back to dreamland. I'm sure I'll find you there. With a smile for ev'ry tear, And a kiss for ev'ry care, I'm lonesome but I'm happy, For I know you'll wait for me. Where the silver sands of dreamland, Meet the sea of memory.
