CHORUS

Sure there's plenty to live for, But oh, what I'd give for, A sight of the old home once more,

Heaven they say, Is not far away,

Way, It must be right next door, There's an angel who's waiting, To welcome me home, By the letters she writes I can see,

By FLORENCE CHARLESWORTH

Valse moderato

I'm sitting alone by the fireside,
The days and the nights seem so lonely.

Watching the shadows fall,
I'm dreaming away.

Missing you all the while,
I'd give all I gain of you dear,
And the days beyond recall.

own if only,
It would bring me back your smile.

And life is so empty without you.
No one can
But all of our cast-les have van-ished.
They could not take your place.
So I'm drift-ing back to dream-land.
be it seems.
But I'll build them all a-gain, dear,
For a glimpse of your dear face.
ln that mis-tic land of dreams.

CHORUS

I'm drift-ing back to dream-land,
I'm sure I'll find you there, With a smile for ev'ry tear, And a kiss for ev'ry care, I'm lonesome but I'm happy, For I know you'll wait for me. Where the silver sands of dreamland...

Meet the sea of memory.
