Young Johnny Jones took his girl for a row—
When Johnny started to pull for the shore—

They rowed and they rowed for an hour or so—
The He floundered around and then he lost an ear—

sun disappeared—and it started to rain—
And then Johnny started

It's raining it's raining it's raining down my neck
And you look like a wreck Your linen skirt check
Have started in to leak You were a blonde is shrinking I can see

but now that you're all wet

Right before my minute you'll have water on the knee. It's rain-eyes you're turning into a brunette. It's rain-

That Old Irish Mother Of Mine

Lyric by WILLIAM JEROME
Music by HARRY VON TILZER

CHORUS

In her eyes there's the dew of Kil-lar-ney, On her cheek there's the rose of Kil-dare.

On her lips just a wee bit of Blar-ney And the snow of Ath-lone in her hair.
