WHO TIRED THE CAN ON THE OLD DOG'S TAIL?

BY MIKE FITZPATRICK
Who Tied The Can On The Old Dog's Tail?

Moderato

I had a dog and his name was Tray. The dog-gone dog he ran away.
Old dog—Tray got an awful kick And some-one hit him with a brick.
That wasn't all when he reached the town. Most ev-ry thing was up-side down.

Ev'-ry-body listen to my tale of woe. This thing hap-pened not so
When he start-ed bol-ting for the old side door That old kit-tle kept a-Sticks and stones were fly-ing all a-round the street. All he need-ed was an very long ago He lived in a house on a great big hill bouncing on the floor Oh! he ran a mile in just nothing flat extra set of feet The baker he fired a pumpkin pie

Where he could eat and drink his fill An old tin can Then on the second mile beat that He ran and ran,
He hit a cop right in the eye They all got pinched, hung on a nail And someone tied it to the old dog's tail:

let out a wall The dog-gone can a-hang'in' from his tail:
locked up in jail The judge said "Tell me or you'll get no bail:

CHORUS

Who tied the can on the old dog's tail? Did YOU tie the can on the old dog's tail?
Who made the old dog hit the trail? Who tied the kitten on the old dog's tail?

He was a setter pup Set around all day and you
He had two pedigrees Half was St. Bernard and the couldn't get him up Stretched out behind the barn

other Pekinese He's found his speed, you bet

Sleepin' in the sun and he didn't give a darn Since he got the can he's forgotten how to set BUT
