CHORUS

They're cow-bells, just cow bells, when he says he loves but you They're cow-bells, just cow bells, when he says you made him fall That's That's

cow bells, just cow-bells, when he says that he'll be true And
And

cow bells, just cow-bells, that is what he tells them all when he sighs, "I love your eyes, you're such a sweet little thing" when he says, "You're my first love, the others don't mean a thing"

You're the first girl that I've kissed; Oh listen, listen to the cow-bells ring, Those I'd lay down my life for you; Oh listen, listen to the cow-bells ring, Those

Moderato

1. Ev'ry-thing must have an end
   So the poets say

2. When we lose some-one we love
   With heartaches we pay

Our ro-man-ce like all the rest
But I guess it's for the best

Will end some sor-ry day
That things turn out that way

If we part, I wonder who But before that end draws near, I'd like to whisper in your ear

Will be in my place with you

CHORUS

Who'll take my place in your heart when I'm gone

Who'll know the bliss of your kiss from then on Who's gonna share each sorrow and care What'll you do when ev'ryone's blue, There is n't a one who will love you like I do Who'll take my place

Who'll take my Place - 3 in your wonderful arms Who will embrace all your wonderful charms And who'll always be true and believe just in you Tell me, who'll take my place when I'm gone.
