Music by
L. EYSOLDT

I dream of you, my Sun-flow'r Maid, You seem as tho' you were afraid, Of roses—— and of tulips, rare; With you—— my dear they don't com-pare. I saw pret-ty curls of gold-en shade, That's

There's a little girl, her eyes sparkle fire,

When you take her hand, love turns on the wire. Every time she smiles, the current is higher, When by her side, You are electric

This electric girl has some winning way,
Her electric glances turn night to day;

With a little smile she steals hearts away,
Her eyes are like a flash of lightning,
She gives you just one look, and you'll say:
Chorus

“I don’t care what becomes of me, I’m “shock” full of electricity. When I meet your eye, I see the bright sparks fly, That flash! dash! E-lee-tric girl of mine!” mine.”

Music by
ARNOLD JOHNSON

Chorus

I have seen the love-light in your eyes, dear,

Shining there for me. The night is still Whisper, will you sing love's melody?
