Moderato

Piano

I love a girl ie very dearly,

A beauty, and her name is Rose;

And I have shown it very clearly,

Each time I see her I propose;
I've bought her jewelry and sabres,
A motor car and things like that.

Slower
She loves to tell me pretty fables,
And then gets up and leaves me flat.
Refrain
In Slow Fox-Trot Time (With expression)

My Rambler Rose, She rambles here and there, She rambles every where;

And goodness knows, I always treat her fair, But she gives me the air;

6495-4 My Rambler Rose
Though she's a wonderful girl, the rambling keeps my poor heart in a whirl; I call her my Rambler Rose, but where she rambles to, nobody knows.
