Soon I'll see crickets creep, Creeping down to their winter sleep.
Through the day how I'll sing, I'll be happier than a king.

Then I'll long to be roaming, Back where cotton fields call.
That's the only place for me. I can't wait 'til I'm there.

CHORUS
(Not fast)
When cold winds are sighin' and snow flakes are flyin' And

Jack frost is bitin' my toes, Just make my cot where the cot-cot-cot-ton grows. When I start to follow the trail of the Swallow back home where the Tennessee flows, Just make my cot where the cot-cot-cotton grows.

Oh Sand-man when I land Shake your sand right over my shack In my sleep, bet I'll weep, So glad to get back. When I lay my head in that old feather beddin', I know I'll be sheddin' my woes Just make my cot where the cot-cot-cotton grows.

Chorus

After you've gone
And left me cryin',
After you've gone
The doors a-swingin',
