The first original musical to be performed at Theatre Glendon, It's Christmas Carol is a musical comedy based on the original Charles Dickens story of A Christmas Carol. Carol is a successful tyrant of a director who is headed for disaster. Through visits from the Musical Theatre Fairy, Dorothy, Liza Minelli, and the Phantom of the Future, Carol is taken on a tour of her past, present and future life in order to see the error of her ways.

It's Christmas, Carol began as a fun project to write a show for Christmas at Glendon by incorporating popular Broadway Musicals. Without any limitations, this original musical explores over 75 musicals while still following Charles Dickens' guidelines of a morality tale. Built from the very best of Broadway's Musicals, and following a holiday tradition, this production incorporates a large array of music, song and dance. It is with the association of the Glendon Musical Ensemble that It's Christmas Carol, the musical, will also include a live band.

Festive for the holiday season, It's Christmas, Carol will generate laughter, amazement, and tears with its familiar Broadway tunes, fantastic dancing, brilliant cast, and remarkably talented musicians.
