(Dig A Little Deeper)

By JAMES F. HANLEY

Moderato

Little Broadway roses, up and down Broadway,
When the moon is peeping on the Great White Way,

When they powder up their noses some one’s got to
’Round the corners they come creeping looking for their

Happy little gold diggers

gold,
Take a little shovel
Dig a little hovel
On Fifth Avenue
Riverside will do
A place in the country, too,
Go find some check collector
In some cabaret
Out where each wife neglector throws his dough away
Dig a little deeper

Dig a little deeper Don't mean any wrong Just a lot of good kids, Trying to get along.
