“Just A Girl That Men Forget”

A lesson in song. The truest story ever told. An appealing musical sermon that has won the commendation of press and pulpit throughout the nation. A particularly timely ballad, combining a lyric of unusual sentiment and charm with a melody that is as catchy as it is beautiful.

_Here Is The Great Verse_
Dear little girl, they call you a vamp,
A flapper with up-to-date ways,
You may shine brightly, but just like a lamp,
You'll burn out one of these days.
Then your old-fashioned sister will come into view,
With a husband and kiddies, but what about you?

_Second Verse_
Wall flower girl, now dry all those tears,
For you won't be left all alone,
Some day you'll find yourself up on a throne,
Queen of a sweet little home,
And, you gay little flapper, you'll live and you'll learn,
When you've gone down the path-way that has no return.

Moderato

Gee! but its hard to
If I could on ly

love some one When that someone don't love you, find the man Oh! how hap py I would be,

heart broken too, I've got the down hearted blues, Once I was crazy a
-ry night I pray, Please send my man back to me, I've almost wor
-bout a man, he mistreated me all the time the -self to death, wondering why he went away, but next man I get he's got to promise to be mine all mine.

just wait and see he's gonna want me back some sweet day.

CHORUS

'Cause he mistreated me and he drove me from his door,
Got the world in a jug got the stopper in my hand,
Say, I ain't never loved but the three men in my life,
Oh, it may be a week and it may be a month or two,
Oh, I walked the floor and I wrung my hands and cried,
