DOWN WHERE THE WATER-LILIES GROW

Song

FOX-TROT

Words by

PERCY EDGAR

Music by

JACK SACHAN.

2/6

FULL ORCH. 2/6 NET.
SMALL 1/6 NET.
Extra Parts 4d. Bach.

REEDER & WALSH,
17, Mortimer Street,
LONDON, W.1.

COPYRIGHT. Printed in England.
DOWN WHERE THE WATER-LILIES GROW.

Words by PERCY EDGAR.

Music by JACK SACHAN.

Blue Eyes the skies are fair,
White flow'rs sweet lilies rare,
All sparkling...
blithe and gay
with the dew
Blue skies
Bright flow'rs

sunshine everywhere,
scenting all the air,
It bids us haste a way.
But none so fair as

If with me sweet heart you'll wan
Come with all the love-light glow

One brief hour of love we'll squander,
Where your sweet name-flow'r is growing:
Down where the water-lilies grow,

Close beside the old mill-stream,

There in days of long ago,

used to sit and dream (and tell our little stories)

R & W. 2617.
Come where I made a tryst with you,

Some where by waters blue,

where the water lilies grow,

You can make my dreams come true.
To-night a Dream,
To-morrow a Memory.

Words by Percy Edgar.

Music by Stephen Kirby.

VOICE.

Moderato.

PIANO.

Key Eb.
Ad lib.

1. Lift up your eyes dear,
2. Sorrow or sadness,

Blue as the skies dear, Put both your hands into mine.
Laughter or gladness, What are they but idle words.

Copyright MCMXXIII by Reeder & Walsh.
Copyright secured.
Piano Solo - 2/- Net.

Full Orchestra - 2/-
Small Orchestra - 1/6

Piano Conductor - 6d.
Extra Parts - 4d.
IT GETS YOU HOT AND BOTHERED.

Words by PERCY EDGAR.

SLOW FOX-TROT.

Music by STEPHEN KIRBY.

VOICE.

1. You will find as
2. When a bankrupt

thru' life you go—It is the small things that knock you flat, los-es his cash It is his dupes and not him—look sad,

Copyright MCMXXIV by Reeder & Walsh.
International Copyright secured.

R.S. W. 2619

PIANO SOLO - 2/- Net.

FULL ORCHESTRA - 2/-
SMALL ORCHESTRA - 1/6

PIANO CONDUCTOR - 6d.
EXTRA PARTS - 4d.