Yes Indeed-I Love You

By STAN MERRITT

Moderato

Ev'ry one has heard about the songs of Broadway,
City there's a snug little nest,
Margie, June and Palestina Have had their Where I long to settle down With one I love day; best; I think it's time I write a line, I'll make it nice and then entice,

About a girl I know And then when I am
This little girl so dear To change her name, make with her This is how the song will go:

ours the same Then this is what she'll hear:

Chorus

E-die yes in deed-ee You're as sweet as you can be, E-die— I'm not greed-y, But I'd surely like to pick you from your fam-i-ly tree, All the girls have lost their at- trac-tion Since you put my heart out of ac-tion E-die—

Won't you heed me E-die I love you— you.

Day after day, When you're away,
Night after night, Dreams in their fight days seem to me like years, That's why I am wondering, find you and linger there. Take me back to dream-land.

What is my fate how can I wait dearest
Is there a time when you'll be mine dearest

DEAR LITTLE PAL
I’m lonesome for you

WORDS AND MUSIC
BY STAN MERRITT

Dear little pal, I’m lonesome for you,
You’re in my thoughts all the while,
You fill my life with sunshine.
There’s no shadow in the sunshine of your smile
If the God that gave me life, would give me you dear,
He knows my love is true,
I want you near me to strengthen and cheer me,
Dear little pal, I’m lonesome for you.
