Every One Is Beautiful In Some-One's Eyes

Revised Edition

Words and Music by HARRY DELF

Moderato

Po-ets write of love and ro-mance, Do they real-ly know?

Are their thoughts just word-ed dreams, Are they real-ly so?

Has each boy his ideal girl, And has she wondrous hair?

Are her eyes like rays of sunshine, Has she always beauty rare?

Do poets really mean the things they say?

I wonder if he thinks of me that way?
Chorus

Everyone is beautiful in someone's eyes,

Everywhere there's love you'll find some beauty lies,

someone for someone, sometime, some place,

And that one sees only the smile and charm and sweetness in her face; For love is blind to ev'rything it should not see.

Things that are not good, They were not meant to be, There's beauty ev'rywhere that there is sunshine, She's beautiful in someone's eyes, And you're wonderful in mine.
