If I Knew You Then As I Know You Now

By LEW BROWN
BILLY JOYCE
and JAMES F. HANLEY

Valse Moderato

It's all over now and you've broken my heart
You're just like a baby that's broken a toy
And wants a new play-thing each day.

You didn't care
'Twas easy to fool me for

I always thought, That you play'd the game on the square!
soon as we part For that is the game that you play:

things would be. My friends used to say that you'd leave me some day And make a fool of me. Still

I trusted you what else could I do? For I loved you from the leave me some day, And make a fool of me, Still
I trusted you, what else could I do, For I loved you from the start, But if I knew you then as I know you now.

You'd never break my heart.
