The song made famous by radio

MOLLY

Words & Music

By

R.S. (Bob) Hawcroft

Music publishers.

200 So. Broadway
Los Angeles, Cal.
MOLLY

Words and Music by
R. S. HAWCROFT

Moderato

I left in Ireland a colleen fair,
Sure don't be cryin' Just wait for me,

Whose heart is long-in' My love to share, Though miles divide us,
You know I'm dy-in' To cross the sea, Soon I'll be holdin'

And years are long, Some day she'll hear my tender song,
You in my arms, And know the sweetness of your charms.

Copyright MCMXXIV by R.S. Hawcroft
International Copyright Secured
Chorus

Molly,
Oh how I miss you, I long to kiss you,

Molly,
My heart is aching, it's nearly breaking,

I'm sad and lonely, I miss Killarney,

Your loving blarney too, Molly,

Molly-3
When night is fallin', My heart is callin', Molly,

I hear the June bells, Their little tune tells, Molly, two hearts will soon be jolly, For sure it's Molly, I'm comin' back to you.

you.