THE NAUGHTY NAUGHTY LITTLE FISH

Words & Music by JOS. BRUCKNER

Fox Trot

Published By JOSEPH BRUCKNER
207 W. 48th ST.
NEW YORK, NY.
The Naughty, Naughty Little Fish

FOX TROT

Words & Music by
JOS. BRUCKNER

Arranged by HAROLD POTTER

Moderato

When on the menu
King Solomon was

you see little fishes, They're innocent and sweetest of all

mighty wise to women,
But almost any little fish a

dishes
But when they're in the sea,
Oh! me, oh! my, oh!

swimming
Could give him cards and spades,
On colors, shapes and

Copyright MCMXXIV by Jos. Bruckner.
International Copyright Secured.
All Rights Reserved.
me, By Gum oh! gosh! oh! shades, For little fishes see, A million kinds of maids:

Chorus

Those naughty little fishes, no doubt have lots of wishes,

Even as you and I They're looking at the ladies, their husbands and the babies, As the rest of the fish swim

Naughty Little Fish 3
by, Some girls say "poor fish," when they meet a guy that's slow, But they ought to know, what the little fishes know, When people go in swim-min', who is it sees the women; The naughty, naughty little fish, Those fish.