The day is ending, you're smiling
The years we've waited, we'll soon for-thru, To mor row's send ing a strug gle new; The bur dens

-get, Our hearts were mat ed since first we met; The trail to heav - y, but if you bear, We'll find a Love - land, soon dear, we'll find, All care and ha - ven, our love to share.

sor - row, we'll leave be - hind.

REFRAIN (Broadly with much expression)
Out where the sun bids the day a fond good - bye, Out where the fields meet the crim-son of the sky, Out where all sor - row sur - ren - dors, a little faster

Out where the blue begins, Dreams we once knew will return dear, and come true.

Love that is strong must abide.

Blest in a nest in the West well find rest.

West of the Great Divide.

Dear Little Boy of Mine

J. KEIRN BROWN

Ernest R. Ball

Oh, when I'm lonely my memory swings
Back to your baby days,
Feeling the joys that a baby brings.
Out of God's wonderous way
Soothing to hear the first prayer
That you said.
There's no one knows how long for you now.
Here with my arms outspread.

Boy of mine, Boy of mine,
Alas! my heart was failing,
I seemed to know you'd want to go,
To claim your soul when I was sleeping.
I'll be here waiting, dear,
Till at a glad dawn's breaking,
Dear little boy you're home to stay.

Dear little boy of mine.

Out of the night of those wonderful years.
I see your happy smile,
Days when I kissed you and dried your tears
Seems such a little while.

Hearing the words mother taught you to say,
Watch you at your childish play.

For always in dreams you're with me it seems,
Just as you'll be some day.

J. Keirn Brennan
