Voice

The best-est time is night time down in Dix-ie,
If I should ev-er stray a-way from Dix-ie,

'Till ready

(Yodel)

"Cause then I takes my ban-jo on my arm.
I know that I'd be home-sick as could be.

(Yodel)

Makes my way to a lit-tle old log cab-in,
I'd be think-ing a-bout my lov-in' Lind-y,

When Dixie stars are playing peek-a-boo,
I wanders down to see my Lindy Lou.

Old Mister Owl starts hooting;
Bull-frogs commence a-tooting;

Chorus
When Dixie stars are playing peek-a-boo,
Little fireflies they light up my way,
Then I can hear a Bob White whistle in the wild wood,

Turtle doves are gently cooing, too.
In that lowing land o' cotton,
Every thing but love's forgotten, When Dixie stars are

When -boo.
Fine.
Optional ending into the Yodel (Yodel)

booo. O-le-ay-le-o, hear me yodel to you.

O-le-ay-le-o, means that I love you true. O-le-ay-le-o, honey

Just wait and see. What a happy pair, we will be. O-le-ay-le-o, 'neath the silver moon. O-le-ay-le-o, You'll be hearin' me croon.

Linger long-er Lou, while I yod-el my song for you. Oh!
