Need recreation. A sort of vacation.
It's there you ramble, You drink and you gamble. And way sing from mental strain.
Your bottle cry.

Our little house boat, Marvelous little spot
In a corner shady, Mumbling tommy rot.

For such relaxation Where telephones are not:
You say of a lady, The things that you should not:

Raleigh: There is a welcome For men who to hell come,
Elizabeth: Just keep your welcome For men who to hell come,

Down on the house boat on the Styx,
We much prefer to be denied,

We barred the ladies Who live here in Hades,
You learned your habits, Perhaps from the rabbits

Down on the house boat on the Styx,
You found a hole where you can hide,
It's a place where gentlemen Forget their worries now and then,
There your guests walk in like lambs When they come out they're pickled hams,

Drown their woe in liquid consolation, No wives to Look like lobsters canned for generations, Keep on that nag them, To fight or to gag them, Down on the house boat on the way, gents, And I'll have dry agents Padlock your house boat on the

"HELLO YOURSELF!"

SAY THAT YOU LOVE ME

Words by LEO ROBIN
Music by RICHARD MYERS

REFRAIN

Say that you love me,
Say that you need me,
Say that you want me as I want you.
You are a part of-

I WANT THE WORLD TO KNOW

Words by LEO ROBIN

REFRAIN

Oh, some-body loves me so,
Some-body told me so, And so I want the world to know.
