He's The Last Word
FOX-TROT SONG

Lyric by GUS KAHN

( Ukulele Arr. See note below *)

Music by WALTER DONALDSON

Allegro moderato

Ev'-ry-bod-y has some bod-y They love to brag a-bout,
Tho' he may not be good look-ing And he's no fash-ion plate,

But they should meet my some-bod- y, Be-fore they start to shout, Just Still I'd like to do his cook-ing, Tho' he's not up-to-date, My put them all together, They may look pretty fine, And father and my mother, Don't care about my taste, But then just ask me whether, I'd trade that man of mine.

when we're with each other, Our time don't go to waste.

CHORUS

He can't dance, but for real romance, He's the last Never sings, but for other things, He's the last word! Seldom talks, but for moonlight walks, He's the word! Can't tell jokes, when he starts to coax, He's the last word! He may be meek and quiet, When last word! He's poor at con-ver-sa-tion, He there's a crowd about, But he's a red-hot riot when hard-ly went to school, But he's a big sen-sa-tion in all the folks go out, Can't re-cite but for an-y ves-ti-bule, Out of style but he's hold-ing tight, He's the last word!

get a smile, That's the last word!
He starts slow, when he starts to go, He's the last word!
Drives a Ford, but I'm never bored, He's the last word!

Girls meet him in the open air,
Not a sheik that you can't resist,
But I'll tell you just learned to care,
They should catch him in an easy chair, He's the last word!
When he kisses you, then you stay kissed, He's the last word!
