Moderato

Like the flow'rs that come in May, You brought happiness my way,
When the roses fade and die, And the swallows southward fly.

Making this a heaven here below;
Will you love me then as you do now?

Like the sunshine from above, You have filled my heart with love,
Will December be like May When the blue skies turn to grey.

But there's one thing, dear, I'd like to know.
Will you still remember every vow?

CHORUS
Is love like a rose—That blossoms and grows,

Then withers and goes, dear,—When summer is gone,—Or birds of the spring—That joyously sing—Then take to the wing dear—

When Summer Is Gone - 3
When summer is gone, I can't believe that we've just been dreaming. That all of our scheming must end with the dawn;

So tell me again, love is not in vain, That it will remain, dear, When Summer is gone. Is love like a gone.
