MY DESIRE

Words by NELLE RICHMOND EBERHART
Music by CHARLES WAKEFIELD CADMAN

Moderato con moto

If one day some fair God should bend From Heaven's blue And smile upon me as a friend Will often do, If he should ask my heart's desire, He could not touch my breast with

Piano

When you've wandered alone on the highways With the wind and the rain in your hair;
It's a joy to be eager and youthful With a courage that never is spent;
Wisdom you've bought As you struggled for naught Toward the youth that will long For the road and a song, And it's rainbow that vanished in air; Then a youth that is never content;

weariness comes and a longing For a answer the call of ambition; For in shelter and comfort there is part bliss Though our smile on the past That has shown you at last The de-vict'ry is won, When it's all said and done, There is

-sire that is deep in your heart:
nothing so precious as this:

Refrain

Just a cottage small by a waterfall,
At the closing of the day;
With some one to wait by a garden gate
Who will charm your troubles away,
Be it humble and all
