weary of the hurry of the town
be a barefoot boy for just a day.

Why don't you come with me for just a day.
You'll say "Goodbye" to all your cares and fears.

There's happiness not ten miles can take you very far away.
back a dozen years. So
CHORUS

Hop in my car Come along and see how happy we are

And you'll find that heaven's not very far It's ten little miles from town

You'll open your eyes in the morning when the sun starts to rise

Our house is small but it's pretty when the peach blossoms fall

And discover that there's blue in the skies ten little miles from town

We get music from the song birds that call ten little miles from town

find a stream where white lilies float — Where you can fields the hills are calling to you — They're filled with dream thrills in a rickety boat — So come for a day.

and if you only knew — There's something they hold lock your desk and put your worries away — And it's ten to one that that I know is lots more precious than gold — There's a reason why we you'll want to stay ten little miles from town.

never grow old ten little miles from town.

A SONG THAT SPEAKS OF THE HEART

BELOVED

CHORUS

Because of you, the skies are blue Beloved, Beloved,

Because you smile it's all worth
