Little we dreamed that the mysteries of love would un-
You disappeared while I longed to be lingering fold on Al- tho' I hardly knew

Of all that mag- ical

you, bliss,
Al- tho' you hardly knew me,
All that remained was your kiss,

Kiss'd by the perfume of summer breezes one evening.
Now I'm alone with a mem'ry of joys I am missing.

In The Hush etc.-4
We wandered a-long—crooning a song—far from the throng—In The

Hush Of The Night—While the twink-ling lit-tle stars played peek-a-boo—Whisp’ring they knew—our ren dez vous—In The

Hush Of The Night—The mo ments passed ev er too fast—
Then we were parted, Why was it "Good-bye" just when love started? Who calls you divine,

Whose arms entwine — All that was mine — On-ly mine, dear, In The Hush Of Night? Night?

In The Hush etc. — 4
