WHEN YOU SAID GOOD-BYE"

(BUT I'VE PUT IT TOGETHER AGAIN)

Words & Music by DOLLY MORSE & ANDREW DONNELLY

CHORUS

I tore up your picture when you said good-bye,
But I've put it together again,
As I tore it up it was tearing my heart,
Only you, dear, can mend it again.

morning passes by, But I swoon when the noon comes around, For my eyes can cry no more, I just wait without hearing a word, Still my man is gone, my man is gone, And now that evening is near, I man is gone, my man is gone, Oh! where oh! where can he be? Bright make this broken-hearted plea When I see the stars appear: stars above, please find my love, For I've searched over land and sea:

CHORUS

Evening star, no matter where you are, Oh, please come out and help me find my man; Evening star, please send your light a-far, And tell him that I want him, if you can, He's been a-way so long I almost doubt him, My life is just an empty shell without him, So evening star, no matter where you are, Shine out and help me find my man.
