With salaries so very slim, to satisfy each little whim. It's quite impossible.
With fillet mignon appetites, it's hard to slumber well at nights. On just a little able, I am afraid;
While ladies of leisure may go find their solitary bean;
You must drink plain Java, tho' you'd like to have a, Little bit of Burgundy,
How can we hunt foxes, when our landlordsocksus, Rents that we can't pay? Say!
tistic, can't be optimistic, Not on toast and tea. Gee!
It drives a girl ie diz zy when she's got to keep so busy,
A girl without finan ces, often, must ac cept ad van ces,

Keeping the wolf from the door;
Keeping the wolf from the door;

Tho' hard knocks never hurt you, they may bruise a lady's virtue,
Keep ing the wolf tra tion to main tain your re pu ta tion,

I've got a con science, let me from the door;
Each Mary wants a lamb who'll from the door;
