Words by RUBE GOLDBERG

Music by LEWIS E. GENSLER

Refrain Slow (with expression)

You left me tears for by-gone years, my treasures;

You left a sigh for days gone by, my treasures.

Though love has flown,

and you're away

Of you a

Walter: Since I was young and tender
Betty: When I was in my high chair
Eating my bowl of pap, whey,
Most of the female gender
I used to scream from my chair
Treated me like a sap, way.

But common sense has crept in
I didn't go 'round squealing,
Scaring the boys a-

FAREWELL

Words by ROBERT A. SIMON
Music by LEWIS E. GENSLE

Refrain

Love of mine, our dreams are dead,
And in their stead We find the dark of night;

Love of mine, no more we'll trace In each em brace all our golden delight.
