Reaching For Some-One
And Not Finding Anyone There

Words by EDGAR LESLIE

Music by WALTER DONALDSON

Moderato

Why is it I get no pleasure?
Why is it I must complain?

Some-one to love and to treasure,
Might rid my heart of it's pain, fold, Still I go hoping in vain!

Just a lost sheep growing old.

CHORUS
I'm just a bubble of trouble and care,

Ver - y fond of pet - ting, But I'm get - ting no - where,

Reach - ing for some - one, And not find - ing an - y - one there.
No sweet romantic to answer my prayer,
Always building castles that nobody will share, Reaching for someone and not finding anyone there. Is there a June

Is there a tune lovers croon? Is there a day coming soon, When I'll find someone somewhere?

Who wouldn't worry and who wouldn't swear, Heaven is a Hades when you're up in the air, Reaching for someone and not finding anyone there!
