CHORUS

I suggest a movie
When I bring her flowers
She says, "Why a movie?
She don't care for flowers

Up at my home, well be alone
"Bring me," she said, "lamb chops instead"
SHE'S GOT GREAT IDEAS
SHE'S GOT GREAT IDEAS

I say, "Call a taxi!"
When I start in yawning
She says, "Why a taxi?"
She says, "Stop your yawning"

The memory

of those happy hours
I stood there before you
A night in June
A gentle breeze
A mellow sigh through the moon trees

The fragrant perfume of the flowers
And then I whispered I adore you
I'll ne'er forget the night we met
Oh joy divine your hand found mine

CHORUS
The moon up above seemed to smile on our love,

Oh! Baby what a night
A girl and a boy in a world full of joy

Oh! Baby What A Night
night—One little kiss that's all But I tell you this

There never, ever will be such a moment of bliss—The thrill of your charms lingers still in my arms, Oh!

baby what a night. The night.

REFRAIN

My heart started jumping so, it took my breath away.

Dear when I met you I just stood and
