Absence Is Present

a screenplay by Vladimir Paskaljevic

Toronto, July 2014.
1. INT. EGG FARM. DAY

Intro scene for opening credits: JELENA, 28, collects eggs in an egg farm.

2. EXT. STREET – DAY

A dog barks at PARAMEDICS that gathered around a woman that lies unconscious on a sidewalk. PARAMEDICS put the woman on a stretcher and then in a van.

The dog wants to jump into the van, but they don’t let him.

The car goes down the street.

Dog stays on the street.

3. INT. HOSPITAL – DAY

RADA, 50, sits and tries to come to consciousness. A DOCTOR passes a glass of water to her while looking at blood tests.

DOCTOR
How do you feel now?

RADA
I’m okay.

Rada drinks a couple of sips. DOCTOR passes her a pill.

DOCTOR
Blood tests are okay. How did you feel these days?

RADA
I had a headache when weather changed, as usual. I didn’t sleep last night almost at all.

DOCTOR
Do you feel nauseous?

RADA
Not now.
(after a couple of beats, frightened)
What happened with my dog?
4. EXT. A STREET IN BELGRADE – DAY

Streets of Rada’s neighborhood. Old part of town. Belgrade looks a little bit like Havana: the facades of the old picturesque buildings have not been restored since World War II. Judging by the graffiti on almost all the walls, the residents are not prosperous or happy. Still, the streets seem like quaint old Europe, though the cars are very new. They are parked haphazardly on the sidewalks, making it difficult for pedestrians to move.

Rada goes down the street and calls her lost dog.

RADA
Srećko! Srećko! (Lucky)

Rada comes to the park where a bunch of DOG WALKERS hang around with their pets. She approaches to them.

DOG WALKER 1
Cheerio neighbor!

RADA
I can’t find Srećko.

DOG WALKERS fidget.

DOG WALKER 1
He run away?

RADA
I fainted on the street. They took me to the hospital now he’s gone.

DOG WALKER 2
Maybe he found a way home already.

RADA
No, he is not there.

DOG WALKER 2
We’ll go find him. Come on, let’s go!

Rada continues to call Srećko shouting his name loud. DOG WALKERS disperse and they call Srećko too.
Time lapse.

Rada is in front of her building. She looks a little bit tired. She shouts Srećko’s name. She stops in front of a door. Her head aches, she wraps her hands around it.

Her neighbor JASNA comes out of the building.

JASNA
Hi, what’s up?

RADA
I lost Srećko. I walked all around the neighbourhood and city center. If you see him please call me.

JASNA
I told you never to unleash him. Are you alright?

Rada wraps again her hands around her head. She rocks like she is going to faint again. But she doesn’t this time.

5. INT. RADA’S APT. - EVENING

Rada’s apartment is typical modest apartment of Belgrade intellectuals, which means that the newest piece of a furniture is bought somewhere in eighties, before the crisis, civil war and UN sanctions destroyed middle class.

Rada enters panting then sits on the sofa.

JASNA brings her a glass of water.

JASNA
So what does the doctor say?

RADA
Nothing. Wait...
(a beat)
I’ve got to find Srećko. I must find him! Poor boy. Couldn’t be worse.

JASNA
How will you search for him like that?

RADA
Can you, please, help me? We should print posters with his photo and stick them all over the neighborhood.

Jasna opens the windows.

JASNA
Sure. Let’s hope that no one poisons him. Some psycho poisoned Albert. You know that Yorkshire terrier? He was dying entire night. Bastards.

RADA
Oh, please don’t tell me that now.

Rada takes out a cigarette.

JASNA
When will you quit smoking?

RADA
Oh leave me alone, it’s only three per day.

6. EXT./INT. TORONTO SKYLINE/SUBWAY – EVENING

Camera pans from CN Tower to Jelena riding on a subway. The train is on a bridge over the DVP. Jelena is tired, she lean her head against a window.

7. EXT. STREET IN TORONTO – EVENING

Jelena walks and enters one of the townhouses in Eastern Toronto. The house is not exactly the cleanest place to live, kind of place which students usually share with immigrants.

8. INT. JELENA’S HOME – EVENING

Jelena enters the house. The shared rooms are a bit messy. Jelena enters her own room. In her room is MILEVA, small dog. Mileva has peed all over floor. Jelena opens the door of a balcony and wipes the floor.

She goes out and knocks on RIMBAUD’s door.

RIMBAUD, 30, opens the door. It is obvious that he hardly woke up. If he was a little bit more charming, we could call him hippie, but he is just a lad that often finds excuses for everything, especially to smoke pot.

JELENA Rimbaud!!!

RIMBAUD
Oh, sorry, sorry, I just came from my job, I forgot.

JELENA
You have a job?!

RIMBAUD
Okay, I will walk him now, sorry! Yes, I got the job!

Jelena does not believe him. She helps him to leash the dog.

JELENA
I was told today that I’m not necessary anymore.

RIMBAUD
Honestly, that wasn’t much of a job.

JELENA shrugs. MILEVA, the dog, jumps happily and playfully.

JELENA
Good! She made a mess! I swear I will leave her somewhere! I don’t care!

RIMBAUD
Oh, she’s so cute! How come you don’t love her?

JELENA
You don’t love her either, shut up!

Rimbaud walks out with the dog.

Jelena slams the door of her room. Finally she is alone. She sighs.

After a couple of beats she turns on her computer and calls her mother on Skype.
On the other side of Atlantic her mother RADA answers the call.

Photos of Srećko are being printed as Rada speaks to her daughter. Neighbor Jasna is behind the screen camera.

JELENA
Hey, mom, how are you?!

RADA
(pretends that she is very well)
Here I am, how are you?

JELENA
Good mom, a little bit tired, but good! How is Srećko?

RADA
He is fine, Jasna took him to the park. I have some kind of a headache.

Jasna who is listening to the conversation is a little bit perplexed because Rada is lying.

JELENA
So, you are not well, mom?

RADA
No, but it’s just when weather that changes and it makes me tired. And Jasna wanted to walk the dog.

The story seems a little bit strange to Jelena.

RADA
What’s new with you? Where is your new dog?

JELENA
He peed all over the room, the idiot didn’t take her out for the entire day.

Rada is angry.
RADA
Why did you let him bring the dog in your shared space?

JELENA
He is landlady’s son!

RADA
What’s going on with your job search? Were you at some interview?

JELENA
Nobody called me still.

RADA
Give me a break, you are there more than half of the year and nobody called you! What’s wrong with you?

JELENA
Mom, I don’t have Canadian experience! I’ve been sending my resumes to everyone. My career here has to develop gradually. Now it’s time here for filing taxes, maybe I will help one accountant.

RADA
And that is your plan? With a university degree in Economics?

JELENA
Mom, stop it!

RADA
The son of my friend got the real job there? What do you eat there?

JELENA
Food! Bye!

Jelena turns off Skype.

JASNA
You have to show that you support her! Or she will return here.
10. EXT. PARK – NIGHT

Studentski park. Documentary scene, to be shot on the spot. Young people sit in groups all over the park in the night. They drink beer out of plastic bottles. Rada is passing by with Jasna, they are looking for Srećko. Jasna sticks posters to the lamp-posts and trees.

JASNA
Leave this to me. Go home, take a rest for a while.

RADA
I am okay!

11. INT. JELENA’S ROOM – EVENING

Rimbaud comes back with dog Mileva.

RIMBAUD
Here we are. See you later.

JELENA

12. EXT. IN FRONT OF TOWN DOG-POUND – DAY

Rada enters town dog-pound.

13. INT. TOWN DOG-POUND – DAY

OFFICER
Here. These arrived today. You can take a look and see if one of them is yours.

Rada looks at the dogs. The dogs look at her.
RADA
What happens with the dogs if their owners don’t come to take them?

OFFICER
Nothing. They remain here... It used to be different before.

RADA
How do you mean ‘different’?

DEŽURNI Different.

Rada watches caged dogs.

14. EXT. KACHA’S PRIVATE ASYLUM – DAY

Kacha’s dog shelter is a small private house outside of the city with a fence around its yard. Inside of the yard, there are dozens of dogs.

Rada comes to look up for her own dog.

KACHA
I help them as much as I can with my pension which is not very high. Some people bring me food for them. But there’s no many of such people. Some neighbors have complained the city, and want the dogs to be taken away to the dog-pound. And you know how many of them were killed in a dog-pound? At that time in dog-pounds they were killing dogs. Now it’s different. Do you have an idea how many of them died?... And people who don’t want to keep their dogs anymore they come and just leave them in front of my door. I love all the dogs and I adopt them all. But I can’t help all.

Rada is impressed, she watches the dogs, she looks as she would like to adopt some of them.
KACHA
Today I saw some dog that looks similar to the one that you described. But he didn’t want to get in. Probably he is afraid of other dogs. There he is!

Rada sees a dog behind the fence. She approaches.

KACHA
Is this your dog?

RADA
It’s not.

15.   EXT. ROAD – DAY

Rada is walking towards the bus station. The dog is following her.

Rada comes to the bus station. The dog sneaks around. She watches him. He comes and he would like to say “take me”.

Suddenly, Rada feels a headache, she puts hands on her head and leans against the wall of the bus station.

She faints. The dog is staring at her.

16.   INT. A FACTORY – DAY

Jelena is at a job interview. Lady MANAGER, 39, interviews her.

MANAGER
Why did you apply for this job?

JELENA
So I can help this company grow. I believe this job will build my confidence and improve my skills. It seems like a great job. I would love to grow with this company.

MANAGER
How do you see yourself in five years?

JELENA
After five years, I am reaching higher positions by leading the company as one of the top in list of organizations. During this five years time period I get more and more knowledge and develop my self each and every second. Finally I see my self after five years as a good knowledge person in our organization.

JELENA sits with a coworker on a curb of a parking lot. They are smoking.

COWORKER
How do you like your new job?

Coworker laughs before she even hears an answer.

JELENA
It’s not bad.

COWORKER
It’ll get better.

JELENA Sure.

COWORKER
Do you have a plan?

JELENA
Some. I want to take a course, to become an accountant. And then… I will see.

COWORKER
Wow! Sounds like a plan! I wanna finish the school.

A couple of beats they smoke in silence.

A bell rings for the end of break.

18. INT. HOSPITAL – DAY

Rada is in an office of a DOCTOR that reads results of blood and other tests.
DOCTOR
Blood tests are within normal range. Lactat dehydrogenesis is a little bit heightened. Scanner shows that there is small shade, we have to do markers to check is it a beginning of tumor and find out what is it exactly. You should get an MRI.

Rada is shocked. Doctor writes a referral.

DOCTOR
Here, take this referral... You should know that for an MRI there is a long waiting list.

RADA
How long?

DOCTOR
Well, it depends on where you go and what priority they give you. Try to find a way to get it as soon as possible.

The doctor gives her the referral. She seems frightened.

DOCTOR
Here you are.

The doctor opens a drawer and gives her a card.

DOCTOR
If the line is too long on a State clinic, you can go to a private one. Here you are. These are not very expensive.

RADA
How much would it be?

DOCTOR
I don’t know. About hundred-two hundred euros.

Rada takes out her card.
RADA
Here you are. If you need a psychiatrist you can call me anytime.

Rada gets up and walks out.

DOCTOR
Don’t be angry, Mrs. You don’t have any other option. The whole country is in a mess, I am just offering you a solution.
(tries to turn everything into a joke, after her)
If you are a psychiatrist in this society, couple of hundreds of euros could be easily made!

19. EXT. QUAI OF DANUBE – DAN

Rada and Jasna are walking in a park under Kalemegdan, a two thousand years old fortress.

JASNA
At the end, you have no other solution. Unfortunately. If you have to wait that much...

RADA
(after few beats, shouting) Srećkoooo! Srećkoooo!

JASNA Srećkoooo!

They are both looking behind bushes. There isn’t any dog.

20. INT. RADA’S APARTMENT – NIGHT/ INT. JELENA’S ROOM – DAY

JELENA
Mom! I got a job! I am going to work in a Serbian bakery! Two thousand a month!
Rada is perplexed.

RADA Congrats.

JELENA
I don’t know. I will now have money to pay for an accountants’ course. Everything is different now. Now I could save money even for a trip to Cuba. Maybe soon I will be able to pay for you to come to visit me, mom!

Rada is happy and sad at the same time.

RADA
Alright child, I am glad. I would like you to make a career in your field.

JELENA
Take it easy mom. I make now two times more than you after years of experience. Now I want to see Srećko, I miss him so much!

Rada realizes that after all her daughter might stay in Canada forever.

RADA
Srećko is sleeping.

JELENA
Come on, wake him up.

RADA
He had stomach problems today, he vomited. But vet says he will be okay. I will bring him tomorrow.

JELENA
Oh, but is he okay?

RADA
Yes, he is okay.

JELENA
How are you?
RADA
I am fine, I am going to sleep
now, it’s very late here.

JELENA
Okay, kisses, good night, mom!

RADA
Good night!

The two women end a conversation.

Rada sheds a tear.

Jelena glimpses at dog Mileva and cuddles her. She puts her in her lap while checking e-mails.

Her face expression changes into panicking fear. She puts Mileva aside. She calls her mother again.

Rada accepts a Skype call.

JELENA
Mom, what’s going on with Srećko?!

RADA What?!

JELENA
My neighbor just sent me an email, asking me if I’ve found Srećko yet. He says that you posted his pictures all around the neighborhood?!

RADA
Which neighbor?! Come on, that is some other Srećko!

JELENA
Show him to me!

RADA
Calm down, child!

JELENA
I will come back to find him!

RADA
Go to sleep child, don’t bother me!
Rada closes Skype. She is thinking about what to do.

Jelena gets up, walks around the room, very nervous.

Mileva is kind of frightened. But, still playfull.

21. ENT. RADA’S APARTMENT – DAY

The next day, Rada brings into her apartment the stray dog that looks like Srećko, the one that followed her near Kacha’s asylum.

RADA
(to the dog)
Come... come... Srećko. Your name now is Srećko.

The dog is mistrustful. He jumps on a sofa.

RADA
Get down!

Rada pushes him off the sofa. The dog doesn’t want to get down.

22. INT. RADA’S APARTMENT – NIGHT/ INT. JELENA’S ROOM – DAY

Rada shows the new dog – fake Srećko to Jelena.

Jelena is watching the dog on Skype.

JELENA
That is not Srećko.

RADA
I washed him a little bit, he was very dirty. Don’t say nonsense, it is Srećko... The screen resolution is bad!

JELENA
What resolution are you talking about, I am not an idiot!
(panicking)
What is going on with Srećko? Mom, I got my ways to find out the truth, tell me what’s going on! What’s going on with Srećko? Mom, you can’t lie to A beat.

RADA
I lost him... I fainted on a street, I was not feeling well.

JELENA
No!

RADA
I am searching for him every day.

Jelena does not know how to react.

JELENA
How are you feeling now, mom? What was that? Why did you faint?

RADA
I am okay, I was just tired.

Jelena cries.

JELENA
(crying)
I will come back, fuck all this!

RADA
I will find him. Me and Jasna we are searching for him, every day. We put posters all around.

JELENA
(through the tears)
I will come back. I am going to make the reservation now. U pičku materinu! (typical regional curse, not translatable.)

23. EXT. PARK – NIGHT

Time lapses.

Rada brings the new dog into the apartment.

GUEST
(to Jelena)
What is this? Mhm, delicious!

JELENA
It’s ajvar (ayvar). We make it out of peppers. I made it.

GUEST
Which country is that?

JELENA
Serbia.

GUEST Syria?

JELENA
No. Serbia.
GUEST
Ah. Siberia. I know. Russians.

JELENA
Not Russian, Serbian.

GUEST
Ah, yes – Siberian, that’s right. Do you want to try my couscous? I brought it.

Jelena tries couscous.

JELENA
Hum. Awesome.

GUEST
Which language do you speak?

JELENA
(trying to make joke)
Siberian.

GUEST
Haha! Do you have fun here?

JELENA
(trying to believe) Yes.

GUEST
Have fun!

RIMBAUD tells some Canadian joke. People laugh. Jelena’s trying to laugh although she does not understand the joke.

26. EXT. PARK – DAY

Rada and Jasna are walking the new dog, searching for the lost one. They shout, but with less enthusiasm then in previous similar scenes.

RADA Srećkoooo!!!

JASNA
Srećko! ... what are you going to do with Jelena?

RADA
I don’t know. I would like to see her once again.
JASNA
Oh, come on! You will see her. Maybe everything is going to be alright. Maybe it’s nothing dangerous. And we might find Srećko at the end.

Jasna hugs Rada.

MALE COWORKER
(in broken English, to Jelena)
I love Serbia very much. I love to go there in the summer.
(to Jelena’s friend coworker)
Everybody complains about the situation over there, but it’s not so visible. Cafes and restaurants are always packed. People are more relaxed there.

COWORKER
Wow, I must go there, sounds like a party place.

MALE COWORKER
It is a party place!

JELENA
I don’t know. I was not ready to accept drinks paid by criminals and dealers.

MALE COWORKER
(perplexed)
I understand...
(a beat)
Do you have a boyfriend? Or friends?
JELENA
No.

MALE COWORKER
Do you cook? Can you make chevaphcichi?

JELENA
I can.

MALE COWORKER
(grins)
Oh, it’s been a long time since I didn’t eat good chavapchichi. One day, you can come to my place. We could make a BBQ with good chevapchichi! Do you have a boyfriend?

Jelena grins, her coworker rolls her eyeballs.

JELENA
(not interested)
No...

MALE COWORKER
Do you like your job in a factory?

JELENA

COWORKER
Here would be OK for us. Thank you for a ride...

A car stops on a bus station.

Jelena and her coworker friend get out. The car goes away and two girls giggle.

29. INT. RADA’S APARTMENT – NOĆ/ INT. JELENA’S ROOM – DAY

Jelena rushes into her room and calls her mother on Skype. She doesn’t pay attention at Mileva who is wagging her tail.

JELENA
Hi mom? Are there any news?
RADA
Nothing, we are searching for him. We heard that there is similar dog found in Krnjača district. We are going to look for him there now. Did you buy the ticket?

JELENA
Not yet, but I’ve made a reservation, to come on Thursday. I will take a loan to pay for it.

RADA
And you will loose your job?

JELENA
I don’t care to come back before I find Srećko. And I want to help you.

RADA
You can’t help me if you are here. You forgot how it is... I have to do have an MRI, maybe even go to a hospital and all that costs a lot. I won’t be able to support you.

JELENA is in a shock when she hears about mother’s illness.

RADA
I am going to sell this apartment, to buy a smaller one if I need money. I don’t know how I will make it... Stay there for now. I insist.

JELENA
But, mom, why didn’t you tell me anything? What’s going on?

RADA
We will find out.

JELENA
Mom, I will come now for real. I’m buying a ticket immediatelly.
RADA
If you come here, I am jumping out of the window. I am not joking!

RADA gets up.

JELENA
(panicking)
Where are you going?

RADA
(grins)
Well, to search for Srećko.
(a beat)
Come on, maybe everything will be alright. We are going to see what we are going to do.

Two women are looking at each other couple of seconds before they close the conversation. Jelena is in bad mood.
Mileva tries to cuddle. Jelena wraps her hands around her her heads.

After couple of moments in a silence Jelena puts a collar around Mileva’s neck and takes her out for the first time since Rimbaud brought her.

30. EXT. LAKE SHORE – DAY

Jelena walks Mileva on Woodbine beaches. Toronto skyline is seen in a background.

She sits on the bench and watches as waves hit artificial rocks.

JELENA
(in English)
Mileva. Come here.

Mileva jumps on a bench beside her. Jelena puts her arm on her.

She gazes in a direction of a lake and sheds a tear.

31. EXT. DANUBE BANK – NIGHT

Jelena’s mother Rada walks her new friend while she shouts for Srećko.
She sits on a bench. Cacophony of different music can be heard from the barges near by.

She is gazing over a glittering moonlight on river Danube. She closes her eyes. Maybe she lost her consciousness again, we will never find out.

32. EXT. STREETS OF BELGRADE — NIGHT

On the other side of the city Srećko is walking on the street all alone.

An editing sequence in which shadows of dozens of dogs stray through the empty streets of Belgrade in the night...

Fade out.
