member The roses are blooming all the time

I've been in every state that has a name

The Chi-

sun is always shining It seems that I'm inclining as through this weary cargo drove me dip-py
I moved to Mis-sis-sip-pi from there I went to world I roam Ten-nes-see

It is my one en-dev-or to

I traveled o'er this na-tion and settle down for-ev-er

And make this place my home.

reached my des-ti-na-tion
The place I long to be CHORUS.

California you for me and of you I boast

There's no place I can see but the dear old Pacific coast

You can have your New York town Broadway may be fine But the golden west I love the best California for mine mine...
