Till ready

1. Two young fellows met out in the street yesterday, One was shabbily clad, and he tried, To aup in the world, When I first met you, luck on me frowned, You were void the well dressed one, who held out his hand, "Are you going to cut me?" he cried.  "What say? too jolly shabby to give me a call, But you'll pound.

So come round to my flat, have the best in the place, What you shake hands with me, I suppose? Come and dine with me, just as you can't eat and drink, take a way; For you kept open house for your are, I don't mind, For I don't judge a man by his clothes."

chums when you'd wealth, And that's why I'm so glad I can say."

Call round any old time. 3
CHORUS.

"Call 'round any old time and make your self at home,

Put your feet on the mantle-shelf, Open the cupboard and help your self.

I don't care if your friends have left you all alone, Rich or poor, knock at the door, and make your self at home."

Call round any old time. 3
