DAYLIGHT HURTS MY EYES

Sung with GREAT SUCCESS BY TELL TAYLOR AND THE THREE LEIGHTONS

Words BY GUS KAHN - Author of "I Wish I Had a Girl"
Music BY AL.W.BROWN - Composer of "Base Ball"

Published by The Star Music Publishers
GRAND OPERA HOUSE BLDG.
CHICAGO
DAYLIGHT HURTS MY EYES

Words by
GUS. KAHN

Music by
AL. W. BROWN

INTRO
Moderato

VOICE.

Mister Owl went out on an awful tear And got Mister Owl a-woke in the afternoon And he home at three A.M. And he met his wife waiting found a simple note And its contents filled his

Copyright MCMVIII by Tell Taylor. on the stair With a stare that would scare most heart with gloom Here is just what his wif - ey

He said I've some sad news for you dear
I've been up to see that doc - tor too

Some-thing I know you'll hate to hear Each night af - ter this I must He said I'm trou - bled just like you So I'm go - ing up toward the stay a - way for I can't go out by day.

north pole dear, Where it's dark six months each year.

Daylight hurts my eyes.
CHORUS (Dreamily)

Don't disturb me in the morning.

Don't you wake me up at dawn.

Don't you let in any sunshine. See that all the shades are drawn. I've been

Daylight hurts my eyes.
up to see the doctor He gave me a very sad surprise
Said that I can't go out 'til after dark 'Cause he thinks the daylight hurts my eyes eyes.

Daylight hurts my eyes. 4
TRY THIS ON YOUR PIANO

After They Said Good-bye

Valse. moderate.

Words and Music by TELL TAYLOR.

1. One little girl
   one little

2. One year has gone
   maiden a-

Copyright 1907 by Tell Taylor.

FOR SALE BY ALL MUSIC DEALERS