When I was a-bringing my love and see me alone;
Even though I try to steal a few little winks;

Ever since you went away you started me thinking,
I'm always up and awake when shadows are creeping,

I'm not the same as I used to be,
Here's what I learned when you turned from me:

Longing it's true just for you my own...
CHORUS

A garden needs a lot of roses, And all the kisses of the dew,

And like the roses need the garden I'm needin' you.

The birdies need a nest to rest in, A tree-top needs a bird or two;

And like the birdies need a tree-top I'm needin' you. Every love af-

-fair needs a lovin' pair, Lov-ers need the moooon;

He can only smile, peep-ing thru a sky of blue;

I've got a gar-den full of roses; The birds are sing-ing for me too;

The moon is shin-ing in a blue sky I'M NEEDIN' YOU. YOU.
