DRIFTING

By W. R. WILLIAMS

Since the tremendous success of this song there have been several imitations put on the market, all using the same title "Drifting." For this reason when you order this song, be sure you get the "Drifting" by W. R. Williams, writer of more real hits than any one writer in America.

If you will try this chorus over a few times, playing it slowly and with expression, you'll admit that this song is one of the prettiest you have ever heard.

We have it published in three keys, A flat, B flat and C, so as to fit all voices.

This is a beautiful and pathetic little song that should be in every home. Beautiful sentiment and tuneful music.

Chorus: Tempo di Valzer

If I only had a home, sweet home, Someone to care for me,
Like all the other boys and girls, How happy I would be,
A kind papa and a mamma dear To call me all their own,
This world would be all sunshine if I
