(Just Like The Girl That Married Dear Old Dad)

Words by WILLIAM DILLON.

Music by HARRY VON TILZER

Tempo di Marcia

When I was a boy my mother often said to me,
By the old mill stream there sits a couple old and gray, Though married boy and see, how happy you will be,
Years have rolled away, their hearts are young today,

I have looked all over, but no girlie can I find,
Mother dear looks up at Dad with love light in her eye, seems to be just like the little girl I have in mind, steals a kiss, a fond embrace, while evening breezes sigh,

I will have to look around until the right one I have found.
They're as happy as can be, so that's the kind of love for me.

Chorus
I want a girl, just like the girl that married
dear old Dad,

She was a pearl and the

I Want A Girl etc.
only girl that Daddy ever had, A good old fashioned girl with heart so true, One who loves nobody else but you, I want a girl, just like the girl that married dear old Dad. Dad.
