Was I a Fool?

By Chas. K. Harris.

Valse Moderato.

Lonely I sit by the Finished forever and

Fire-side,
Dreaming of days long ago,
Wrecked by a treacherous smile,

One sweet face haunts me forever
Just like a will-o'-wisp foils you,

No matter where I may go,
I followed her all the while.

I loved her yet she deceived me,
Not the first man by a million.

Told me her love had grown cool,
Who has been made woman's fool.

Her love seemed true, I never knew,
But come what will, I love her still.

Was I a Fool.
That her heart called me a fool.
Although she called me a fool.

Chorus.

Was I a fool 'cause I loved her, Even more than tongue can tell? Was I a fool 'cause I kissed her. And held her in love's sweet spell?

Was I a Fool. 4
Was I a fool when I told her?

That I would die for her sake?

I'd do the same things a thousand times over. Though all the world called me a fool.

After'While.

Moderato.

Years have come and years have gone so silently,
Well do I remember her bright sparkling eyes,

Just like fleeting dreams they've passed away,
Which made my heart beat so high and fast,

summer time, love despise, And the sweetest vows were pledged in May,
