IF I ONLY HAD A BEAU.

H. W. WILLETT.

Moderato.

I'm as blue as I can be
In the summer time you know

Things don't pan out right for me
When the gentle breezes blow
Every night I
And the moon-y

stay at home all by my lonesome self nights are full of lovers by the score

"dead one" right, And have no business out at night.

If I only had a beau
Like some other
One who would be good to me

One to love me faithfully

Come to see me
every night Be my honey darling right, Oh,

Then I would be happy if I only had a beau.
