Tempo di Valse.

'Neath your inverted bon-net, With peach-es trimmed on it, I What a great plan for spoon-ing, Just think, hon-ey-moon-ing, In know that you sly-ly are peep-ing at me, Your eyes so en-sweet-est of peach-groves d'er kissed by the sun, With both heads totrance-ing May be fond-ly glance-ing, But your peach-bask-et hat is gather-ed, In all sorts of weather, Sure-ly then would two heads be

In a "peach-basket hat" made for two, Large enough to get under with all I can see, I am not criticizing, But when idolizing And better than one. Traveling in harness double Oft brings Cupids trouble, And if wooing a maiden as lovely as you, I think old Dame Fashion, For perchance some day, we would have a wee spat, We'd make up demurely, I love's tender passion, Should have peach-basket hats made for two.

know we would surely Keep all secrets "right under our hat."
