Moderato.

In a quaint and ivy covered Bungalow,
Josephine had promised to elope with me,

Just about a mile from here,
I appeared that night at ten,

always dreaming of,
on the balcony,

Lives the girl I'm With a ladder
She's the one I love so dear,
I climbed up to see her then.

Every day while underneath the maple tree,
She stood at the window just like Juliet,

On the garden gate she'll swing,
Waiting for her Romeo,
When I saw her
cover up her eyes,
father standing there,
Then to her I softly sing;

CHORUS.

How do you feel today—

How Do You Do Miss Josephine 3.
How is Nan? sister Ann? How's your mother and your little redhead brother, If you go for a stroll Miss Josephine.

You'll know the reason why, I love to say how do you do, But hate to say goodbye.
“Honeysuckle” is the most beautiful and melodious inspiration that has emanated from the prolific pen of Albert Von Tilzer.

“Honeysuckle” possesses the captivative qualities that makes the pianist play it and makes the listener want to hear it again and again.

Whether played by a large or small orchestra, whether played by a band or on the piano, “Honeysuckle” asserts itself as the most charming composition now before the public. Will also be published as a song.

If your dealer cannot supply you with this instrumental, we will, on receipt of 25 cts., send you a copy post-paid, to any part of the world.
