Why Did You Make Me Care?

Words by
SYLVESTER MAGUIRE.

Music by ALFRED SOLMAN.

Valse Moderato.

With tender expression.

You say that you must We've always been to-leave me, gather,

That you and I must part,
True sweethearts all these years.

Why should you want to grieve me,
Thro' bright and storm-y weather,
I gave you all my heart;
Laugh-ter and thro' tears;
When first you called me "dear-ie;"
Made me doubt you,
The whole world seemed so fair,
But now you're grow-ing wea-ry,
I can-not live with-out you,
Why Did You Make Me Care? - 4
Why did you make me care?
Why did you make me care?

REFRAIN.

Why did you make me care,

Why bring me dreams so rare,
You told me that sweet-hearts should never part, Then why do you leave me and

Why Did You Make Me Care?
break my heart? Why should we meet no more,

Why can't we love as before,

The world looked so rosy, and life so fair,

Why did you make me care?

A Work By LAMB and SOLMAN That Will Live Forever!

When ARTHUR LAMB and ALFRED SOLMAN, those infallible writers of ballads, created their masterpiece SHIP OF MY DREAMS, music lovers all over the world pronounced it the acme of beautiful poetry wedded to wonderful and harmonious melody! The plaintive strain: BRING BACK THE ONE I LOVE, SHIP OF MY DREAMS, will appeal to every lover, while the masterfully built up climaxes offer unsurpassed opportunities to the singer.

“Ship of My Dreams” is published in 4 keys.

SHIP OF MY DREAMS.

Words by
ARTHUR J. LAMB.

Refrain.
Valse lente. With a broad swing.

Bring back the one I love, Ship of my dreams Speed home a cross the foam, Where starlight gleams!

My heart by night and day
