golden chimes of olden times. I linger o'er the organ keys And realms above to know our love! So dreaming o'er the organ still, dreaming, hear the melodies. That ever loving memory knows; While harmonies my spirit fill; But yet until my life must close; While silent as the twilight's close, many a memory comes and goes,

The tide of sorrow ebbs and flows; It ebbs and flows.

The tide of sorrow ebbs and flows; It ebbs and flows.
Dreaming, dreaming While the organ's strains respond, I see you with the Angels in the beautiful land beyond; I see you with the Angels in the beautiful land beyond.
