Kitty McGee my Cough-ah Me-crusher I think that you're just fine

I love you dear-I thank you for my dear-I want you to be mine-
Well

build a cot-tage on Ire-land shore with sham-rocks growing 'round the door, And

Andante Moderato

It hardly seems so long ago, Since youth's young day was
This old world has a weary way,
We live in constant lighted fears

I never knew I loved you so,
When
For happiness we have to pay,
The

first our troth was plight-ed. The adoration law of life is tears. It takes the only of my life, I worshiped at your shrine one we love, We're left alone it seems

The close of each day's weary strife brings dreams that you are mine.
But I shall ever look above; I always have my dreams.

Drifting In Dreams etc. #
Drifting, drifting, drifting in dreams with you.

Calling the last of a golden past, when we kissed 'neath the heaven's blue.

Lifting, lifting, lifting me up to you.

For I sail away at the ebb of day Drifting in dreams with you.
