Did you ever have a

Now old Broadway's lights and feeling come into your heart a stealing, To go back to the places with its shows and pretty faces, Is not what it is place where you were raised, There's a certain fascination paint ed up to be, Yes, it may sound awful

Gay Paree, never even found, A place with old Virginia could compare.

CHORUS.

I'm going back to old Virginia, Where I want to be,
Where skies are blue, and friends are true. And ev'ry body treats you as they ought to do, I long to see my dear old mammy, And all the folks so dear, So I'm going back to old Virginia, A long, long ways from here. here.
