IF DREAMS WERE ONLY TRUE

Serenade by Reginald R. Pulford and J. Anton Dailey

Sung with great success by Miss Mabel McKinley

If Dreams Were Only True

Male Quartet  J. ANTON DAILLEY
Arr. by Harry P. Guy

Melody in 3d Tenor

If dreams were on - ly true, sweet heart, If dreams were on - ly true, And I could take you in my arms, Just as I used to do, as I used to do,

of blue, cresc.

ev - er, dear, While in your eyes of blue, of blue,

of blue, of blue,

love - light shine for me, If dreams were on - ly true.
To My Dear Friend Signor Giuseppe Bartolotta

IF DREAMS WERE ONLY TRUE

Music by J. ANTON DAILEY

Words by REGINALD R. PULFORD

Serenade

Comp. of "Dreaming," "Sweetheart Days," etc

Andante moderato

Last night I dreamed of your dear face,
Thou' years have passed, your sweet face still.

And of the happy days gone by,
Those days now gone beyond recall,
When we were sweethearts, you and I.

In you in dreams, Sweetheart, no matter where you are.

Copyright MCMXII by J. Anton Dailey, Detroit, Mich.
poco a poco accel. e cresc.

dreams I pressed you to my heart, And held your little memory your words of love Will ever twine apoco a poco accel. e cresc.

hand in mine. You promised, oh, so tenderly about my heart To keep it young with thoughts of thee,

That you would be for ever mine. From you in dreams I ne'er will part.

CHORUS Rather slow with great expression.

If dreams were only true, sweetheart, If dreams were only true. And I could take you in my arms just as I used to do. I'd hold you there forever, dear While in your eyes of blue I'd watch the love-light shine for me, If dreams were only true.

If Dreams 3