SILVER STAR

Chorus:

We will be dreaming by camp-fires gleaming, in lands afar,

Tell me you see, my silver star. We'll go a creeping while sweeping sleep, there will be war, if we should terrify, my all star. We will be star.

MY DREAMY ROSE

Words by WM R. CLAY

Music by CHAS. L. JOHNSON

Moderato

I know a little Rose sweet as the morning dew,
Her voice is like the music of a silver bell,

fair-est lit-tle flow'r that ev'-er grew,
beau-ty more than an-y tongue can tell,

lips are such a ros-y red, her eyes so bright
has a form just like some charming Venus rare.

like the little stars that shine at night. When are no tresses like her golden hair. Some evening breezes murmur I will linger there. And day I'll come and take this Rose away with me. And woo my pretty Rose with verses rare. If she will only come and nestle then forever happy we will be. And in some shady bower we will close to me, I'll whisper low this dreamy melody:

bill and coo, And to my dreamy Rose I'll e'er be true.
REFRAIN

Moderato

My dreamy Rose, nobody knows How much I love you, sweet Rose,

Your smile so sweet wins me complete, My heart with rapture o'er flows:

Each flow'r that grows, each breeze that blows Secrets of love half disclose, That's why I know that I love you so, My dreamy Rose, Rose.

CHORUS.

Do you remember once of meeting a little girlie just your size, Do you remember once of meeting a little girlie just your size, call a friendly greeting from out of two little blue little eyes And how you promised that you'd love her, and then she told you she'd be true Now would you swear by Heav'n above you, when the right little girl loves you. Do you swear by Heav'n above you, when the right little girl loves you. Do you
