Says I To Myself, Says I.

Words by ED. MORAN.

Music by HARRY VON TILZER.

Barney Carney from Killarney called to see Kate O-
Sure the rogue with Irish brogue took hold of me little Shay-hand. When he left it was awful late. Katie's mother said, "Listen, Kate, "Darlin's says he, 'Let's have a lark. Take a taxi through Central Park.

Barney Carney full of blarney. What did he have to say? You were sitting on Barney's knee.

Why thinks I should I not try to see what a chance I stand. Take a ride in his taxi-car.

Kate said, Mother leave that to me. Though 'tis true he squeezed me, too. What did I do, says you?

Find out what his intentions are. Maybe he means well by me. Go with him, Kate, and see, Chorus.

Says I to myself, says I, Says I, Says I to myself says I,

Kate be looking before you leap, Wait be ass-y and watch your step, Says I Should I spare him a kiss or two, Would it be the right thing to do, Says I

If I leave this I to myself says I, says I, Says I to myself says I buck-o stay sure what will happen then-

If I send him on his way will drive to Father Mack

he come back again we'd raise Paddy Whack

glor-y be 'tis hard for me to try and please the men---

Says I to myself, says I, Says I to myself, says I, Says I to myself, says I, Says I.
